

Country

SLOVENIA

Name of organization (in English)

The International Committee of Deportees and Refugees, Victims of Fascism and Nazism in 1920-1945

Name of organization (in native language)

Mednarodni odbor izgnancev in beguncev žrtev fašizma in nacizma v letih 1920-1945

Contact person(s)

Ivanka Žnidaršič, prof.

Email address

email:drustvoizgnancev@siol.net

Telephone number

051 38 32 32, 00386 1 4344 880

Website

<http://www.društvo-izgnancev.si>
www.eu-eric.eu

Facebook profile

About the organization and its goals

- preserving the historical knowledge of Fascism and Nazi oppression during World War II;
- of the deportation of Slovenes and other Slavic peoples;
- of the forced labour during World War II;
- exercise of the rights and payment of reparations to the civilian victims of the war

Target groups

War victims:

- those forcibly deported from their homeland
- refugees
- forced labourers
- deported children

Services for Holocaust survivors and other victims of Nazi persecution

- collection of data and arguments for the exercise of the rights of the victims of Nazi and Fascist persecution
- preservation of previously won rights
- working for the institution of reparations for material damage during World War II

Annual budget / funding

- membership fee from members of organizations and associations of victims of Fascism and Nazism
- donations

Other relevant information about your organization

- The International Committee of Deportees and Refugees, Victims of Fascism and Nazism in 1920–1945 is based at the address of the Association of Slovenian Deportees, at Linhartova 13, Ljubljana.
- The Association has 84 local and regional chapters in Slovenia.
- The International Committee includes organization and associations of victims of Fascism and Nazism from Austria, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Poland, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia and Ukraine.

The International Committee was established at the 1st European congress of deportees and refugees, victims of Fascism and Nazism, which was held on June 6, 2009, in Ljubljana, Slovenia, and attended by over 4000 people.

The International Committee has established rules for its operations and meets in a different member country each year.

